

2011 Bethlehem Greeting Cards

This is a striking card with a new perspective on the traditional Bethlehem nativity scene.

Irish artist, Colm MacAthlaoich, invites you to imagine the bewilderment of the three wise men if they tried to bring their gifts to Bethlehem today. They would find their path blocked by the wall and it's doubtful if they would be allowed through the checkpoints.

This illegal structure acts as a prison wall, blocking the aspiration of all Palestinians to freedom & self-determination.

Despite its strong message, the image on the card is a quiet, gentle work, inviting you to think and reflect. The predominant colours are browns and golds, the colours of Australian summer and Christmas.
